

Brenda Stanek began her employment with the Environmental Analytical laboratories of the Saskatchewan Research Council in 1975 after graduating from the Chemical Technology program at SIAST. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in 1983 from the U of S, and became supervisor of the Inorganics group. In 2005 she became Manager of the laboratories.